

English VI

1 - Multiple Choice. Choose the correct answer in each number, then, encircle the letter of your choice.

1. A type of text that gives factual information about a specific topic.
a. informal text b. literary non-fiction c. persuasion
2. This is also known as literary nonfiction.
a. Creative nonfiction b. drama c. poem
3. Which one is an example of a literary nonfiction?
a. biography b. ~~geography~~ ^{autobiography} c. adjectives
4. This is a person's life story written by himself.
a. biography b. autobiography c. short story
5. In ^{different} degrees of adjectives, which one simply describes or modifies a noun.
a. positive b. Comparative c. Superlative
6. Which one is used when comparing two nouns w/ each other.
a. positive b. Comparative c. Superlative
7. This is used when comparing three or more nouns.
a. positive b. Comparative c. Superlative
8. Which among the choices below is the correct ~~com~~ Comparative or Superlative form of blind?
a. more blind b. blinder c. blind
9. Al-Khwarizmi was a ^{Persian} scholar in the House of Wisdom. What does House of Wisdom mean?
a. scientific research & intellectual center b. scientific research for scholars
c. scientific center for intellectual research
10. ^{He is the} Cambridge professor who brought Ramanujan to England.
a. G. H. Hardy
b. G. H. Harty
c. G. H. Harding

II - Degrees of Adjectives (Comparison).

Provide the missing positive, comparative or superlative form of the following regular and irregular adjectives.

	Positive	Comparative	Superlative
1.	final
2.	bad
3.			farthest
4.	well
5.	clever
6.	tasty
7.		better
8.		less
9.	ill (bad health)
10.	awful

III - Sentence Writing :

Write a sentence using adjectives in positive, comparative or superlative degree; then encircle the adjectives used.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.